London. Dear Santa, I am a little boy, 3 years old. I want for Christmas a doll, truck, a picture book, a ball, a new suit. I think this will be all for this year. Don't forget my uncles, Dick and John. Don't forget some candy and bubble gum. I will go to bed early. Your boy,

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION FOR MR. AND MRS. H. F. CHANDLER

On December 21, 1881, marriage vows were spoken by Miss Emma Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones and Mr. Harvey F. Chandler, a young business man of the city.

The years rolled along and on Monday, December 21, 1931, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a dinner at their home, 101 Elm street. It is interesting to note that the bride and groom of fifty years ago first went to housekeeping at the location of their present home.

Sixteen guests were seated with the genial host and hostess for a dinner of beautiful appointments and delicious viands. The long table covered with a cloth of handsome cutwork was centered with a beautiful tinsel tree surrounded by a wreath of hemlock, whose tiny cones added their decorative touch. Stretching from the center to both ends of the table were streamers of golden tulle, bearing the golden numerals 1881-1931. Each plate was marked by a lovely hand-made favor.

The beautiful home was decorated profusely with flowers, the gifts of admiring friends and relatives and notes of congratulation continued, even at a late hour, to arrive for the happy couple.

Those present at the celebration with Mr. and Mrs. Chandler were: Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Schaeffer and their children, Joan, Bradley and Bobby Schaeffer, of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stutson of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Wright Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Landsittel, Miss Lucie Eleanor Voorhies, Misses Dorothy, Helen and Isabel Chandler and Wilson Voorhies,
